

I agree with RM-10811, that Element 1,5WPM Morse Test should be immediately eleminated from the Amateur Service rules (Part 97). By doing is it would bring more Non-Code Tech. into the General class and provide more amateur radio help to the public service program. It is time to act as have many other countries.